

CCCMA & SGR

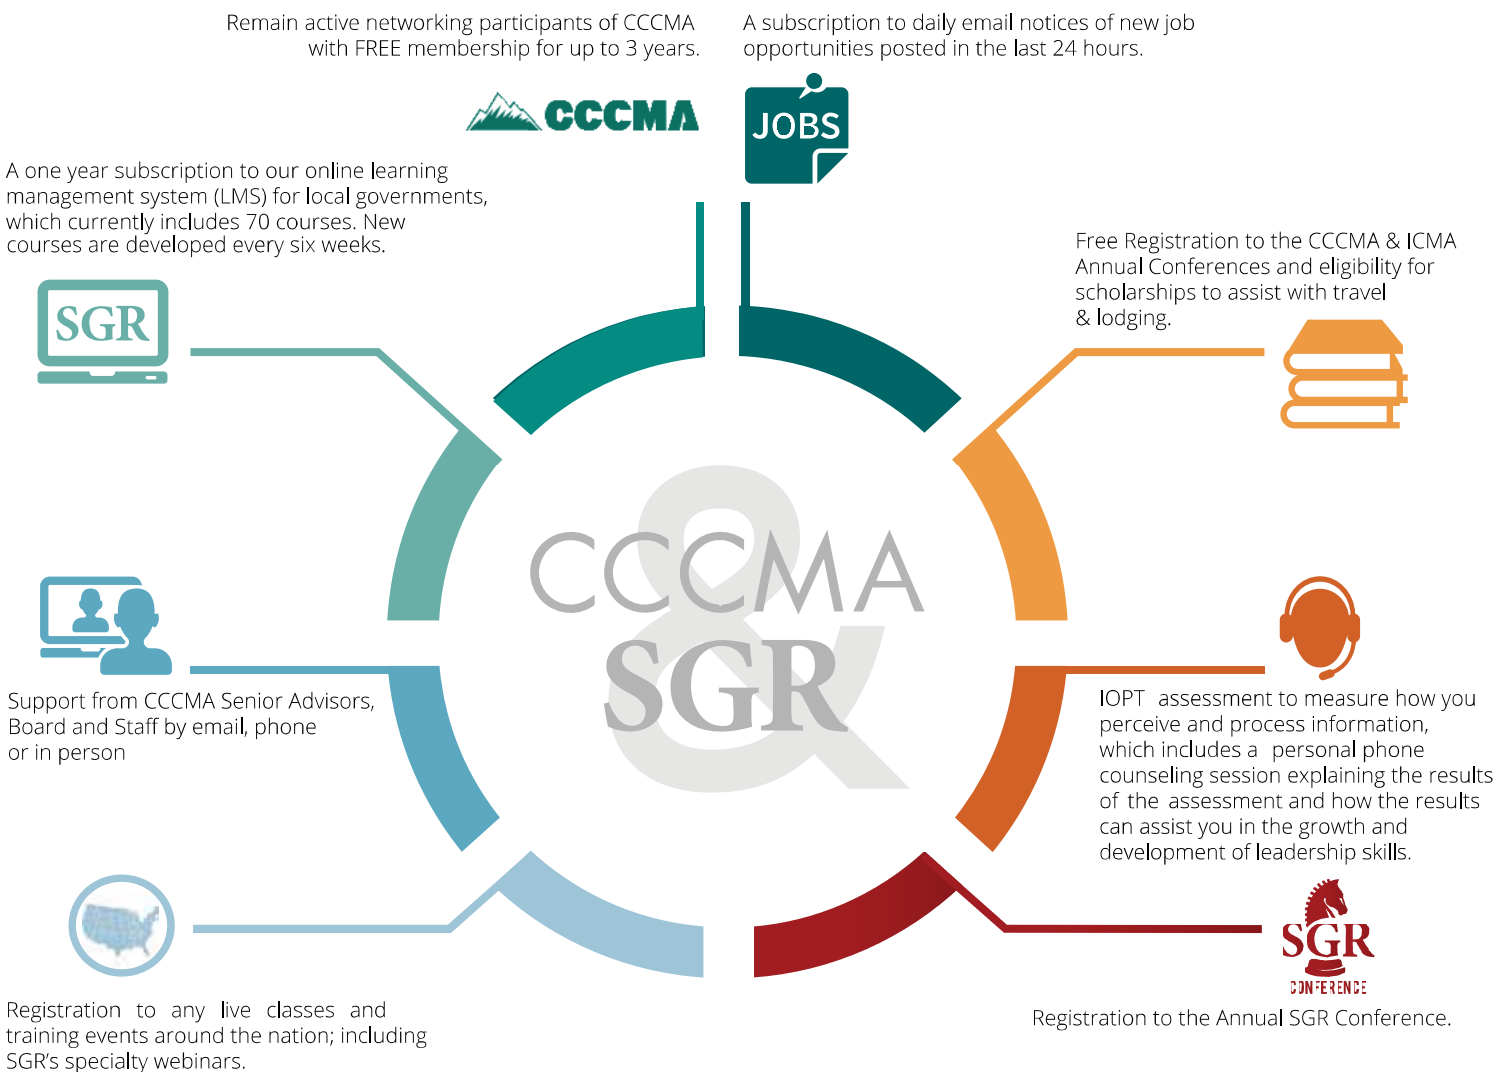

SUPPORTING MANAGERS IN TRANSITION

Colorado City and County Management Association (CCCMA) and Strategic Government Resources (SGR) are partnering to support Managers in Transition (MIT). Together we can help you search for your next opportunity, provide assistance in personal and professional career development, and more.

CCCMA is proud to serve as a personal and professional support network, for local government leaders at all points of their careers.

SGR helps local governments recruit, assess, and develop innovative, collaborative, authentic leaders and is proud to support CCCMA in their efforts to provide practical support to MITs.

As a Manager in Transition (MIT) and a member of CCCMA, you have FREE access to all of the following services to assist you in your personal and professional career development.

To take advantage of these free services, please contact SGR Senior Vice President Larry Gilley at LarryGilley@GovernmentResource.com or at (325) 660-4208 or CCCMA Association Manager Denise Taylor at denise@coloradoccma.org.

